Dear Mr. Lasseter:

Previously, your committee received correspondence from the Commission after its review of the original report referenced above. Your committee's response did not adequately address the following:

Schedule A of your report indicates that your committee may have failed to file one or more of the required 48 hour notices regarding "last minute" contributions received by your committee after the close of books for the 12 Day Pre-General report. A list of the contributions for which a 48 hour notice is missing is attached. A principal campaign committee must notify the Commission, in writing, within 48 hours of any contribution of $1,000 or more received between two and twenty days before an election. These contributions are then reported on the next report required to be filed by the committee. (11 CFR §104.5(f)) To ensure that the Commission is notified of last minute contributions of $1,000 or more to your campaign, it is recommended that you review your procedures for checking contributions received during the aforementioned time period.

Although the Commission may take legal action, any response you wish to provide concerning this matter will be considered. Should your review determine that the contributions listed were not completely or correctly reported, you must amend your original report using the correct information.

A response or an amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. Electronic filers must file amendments (to include statements, designations and reports) in an electronic format and must submit an amended report in
